Description

This is a rubber bracelet/band that you can wear to promote awareness of fibromyalgia. Although the above image is a draft of the content for the band you can see that it will be quite unique and hopefully draw comments from people so that you can explain about FM when they ask.

Featured on the band is the word Fibromyalgia and the web address. We have a couple of different pricing options below and the more you buy the better value. So why dont you buy some for your friends.

Certainly raises awareness, people are always asking questions about FMA. Suitable for men, as easy washed and they are fashionable at the moment.
